

Configuring User Parameters

Configuring User Parameters

Administrators configure code tables that define the following user parameters:

- Producer groups
- Material types
- Producer classification
- Local fields for describing a Producer, if necessary
- Approver groups

Administrators can access these code tables from the Code Tables List page. For more information, see Working with Code Tables.