

Activating 医中誌Web in Alma for CDI

医中誌Web requires a unique setup in order to allow retrieving records in CDI.

In order to activate 医中誌Web in Alma to receive CDI results, the following steps are necessary:

1. Confirm the library has an active subscription for the content
2. Request the provider's approval to activate 医中誌Web via email.
3. Submit a case to Ex Libris Support with the provider's confirmation attached requesting to activate 医中誌Web in Alma for CDI results.
4. Ex Libris will customize the database, and will confirm in the case once the activation has been properly set up.
