Alma KB: What is Happening to Oxford University Press Trove Collections?

As of 2025, Oxford University Press will no longer release annual Business, Science and Politics Trove collections. Instead, the provider has requested that we will continue using the latest Trove title lists to update the existing collections that will be renamed to reflect the departure from the annual model.

At present, the Law Trove collections remain the only Trove collections which still have annual editions.

This change affects the following collections:

Collection ID	Current Collection Name	New Collection Name
61541000000000049	Politics Trove	Oxford University Press Politics Trove
614910000000003307	Oxford University Press Business Trove 2023 Collection	Oxford University Press Business Trove
61746124900000041	Oxford University Press Science Trove 2024 Collection	Oxford University Press Science Trove
