Question

Is Rollover required to run on the day the ledger expires? For example, fiscal period ends on 30 June must Rollover be run on 30 June?

Answer

No, the Rollover is not required to run on the day it expires. The ledger can have fiscal period encumbrance and expenditure grace periods.

Additional Information

See "How to extend Fiscal Period for a ledger in Alma?" for more information on grace period for ledger and funds.
