Question

In the Documentation Center, there is the following document from Carmit Marcus:

Ex Libris Documentation Center > Conference and Seminars > IGeLU > 2012 Conference > Aleph Update IGeLU 2012.pdf

In the document, it mentions a new service "General Letter to vendors" (acq-33).
But when I look at the Aleph version 21 Minor Release 1, I cannot see the service.

Answer

The service was based on a requirement from a specific customer.
The customer withdrew his request so the Development wasn't integrated into the version.
