

The website you want to view requests identification. Please choose certificate.

- Article Type: General
 - Product: Aleph
 - Product Version: 17.01
-

Description:

We are trying to implement LDAP. After switching apache to SSL, we are able to bring up the OPAC, but we we try to login, we get the following message: "The website you get want to view requests identification. Please choose a certificate."

Resolution:

The URL was being entered with "http://..." . If apache is started with SSL, it must be "https://..."

Additional Information

faq

- Article last edited: 10/8/2013