

Intota Assessment: Access to Books In Print

- Product: Intota

To what extent does Intota Assessment provide access to Books In Print (booksinprint.com)?

Intota Assessment provides its users with full access to Books In Print:

- ISBN's in Intota Assessment reports link out to title details in Books In Print. When you click on a link you will be automatically logged into Books In Print if you are coming from an approved IP address (Intota Assessment customers have IP-authentication set up for Books In Print).
 - Full access to Books In Print is also available by going to Books In Print from an approved IP address.
 - Not familiar with all the functionality available in Books In Print? See this overview on the ProQuest website.
 - Note that administrative access to areas such as Usage Statistic Reports and New Search Templates requires a Books In Print admin access name and password. Every institution has an admin login; if you are interested in such access please contact your institution's primary Books In Print user.
