

Pivot Gallery Overview

Pivot Gallery™ is a public website where you can quickly and easily view your institution's research talent and their work.

Pivot Gallery Home Page

The website is read-only. Its contents are generated automatically using the Pivot-RP profiles related to your institution. An administrator can configure various aspects of Pivot Gallery's look and feel, as well as enable or disable profiles from appearing on the site based on their profile role.

Pivot Gallery's contents are generated automatically using the Pivot-RP profiles related to your institution. Administrators can configure various aspects of Pivot Gallery's look and feel, as well as enable or disable profiles from appearing on the site based on their profile role. For more information, see Customizing Pivot Gallery for Your Institution.