

Ulrichsweb: Product Descriptions for Library Web Pages

Here are some suggested descriptions of Ulrichsweb™ that you can use on your library's web page to tell your library's users what Ulrichsweb provides.

Brief Description (for Academic or Special Library)

Ulrichsweb™ is an authoritative source of information about more than 400,000 serials and other periodicals from around the world including academic and scholarly journals, Open Access and peer-reviewed titles, trade publications and newspapers.

Brief Description (for Public Library)

Ulrichsweb™ is an easy to search source of detailed information about more than 400,000 magazines, journals, trade publications, newspapers and other periodicals from around the world.

Longer Description (for Academic or Special Library)

Ulrichsweb™ is an authoritative source of information about more than 400,000 serials of all types from around the world—academic and scholarly journals, Open Access and peer-reviewed titles, trade publications, newspapers and other periodicals. Information includes publication details such as titles and ISSN, publisher, subject areas, scope, language, URL, online coverage, and editorial contacts.

Longer Description (for Public Library)

Ulrichsweb™ is an easy to search source of detailed information about more than 400,000 magazines, journals, trade publications, newspapers and other periodicals from around the world. Detailed bibliographic information about each publication includes information such as title, ISSN, publisher, subject areas, languages of text, URL, online availability, and librarian-authored reviews and recommendations from Magazines for Libraries™.