Subscribe to ListServ

The RapidILL listserv plays an important role for Rapid community. The listserv is the primary way information on RapidILL is shared. Announcements regarding new enhancements and, on rare occasions, announcements about upcoming system downtime or issues are posted to the Rapid listservs. In addition, the listservs provide an easily accessible forum for you to discuss ideas or post questions to the other Rapid libraries in the Rapid community.

Every ILL staff member in your organization should subscribe to the Rapid listserv. Details on subscribing to the listserv are found on the listserv page.
