- June 2019 Fulfillment - Course Reserves SF: 00644387
If you entered an invalid value for Resource Total Pages in the Copyright Attributes tab of a citation, the field was only validated if you saved the citation while that tab was active. If you saved the citation while any other tab was active, the field was not validated and an invalid value could be saved. When running the course loading integration profile, an invalid value in this field caused an error. This was fixed: validation is now performed on the field when saving from any tab, and now the course loading integration profile will not fail because the field will not contain an invalid value.
- June 2019 Fulfillment - Course Reserves
On the Edit Citations or Edit Reading List pages, if you selected a portfolio link in the Electronic tab of a citation, and then selected to go back, Alma displayed a null page. The portfolios in this tab are no longer links; to properly view the portfolios, select Portfolio List from the row actions list.
