

Product Integrations

Product Integrations allow institutions to add, edit and configure key integration university systems quicker than ever before, with no need for any Ex Libris development or services.

With a constantly growing list of out of the box integrations, institutions can enhance the user experience with just a few clicks using the campusM App Manager.

Find out more using the resources below:

- Product Integration Overview Feb 2020.\(pdf\)

