

Resource Recommender

Duration: 2 minutes

Description	The Resource Recommender service allows you to recommend the following resources based on searchable tags that you can configure: database, website, person, library information, library guide. When a user performs a search in which the query matches the searchable tag (which may be a word or phrase), Primo displays three associated recommendations at the top of the brief results.
Recommended Resources	Resource Recommender Resource Recommender for Primo VE