

Primo VE 2021 Known Issues

The following table lists the known issues for new features in the Primo 2021 release.

Category	Issue	Release
Accessibility	Screen readers (such as JAWS and NVDA) are not letting users know that additional information is needed for mandatory fields after submitting a request form.	July 2021
Accessibility	Screen readers (such as JAWS and NVDA) are not letting users know that relevant fields are required.	July 2021
Accessibility	Screen readers (such as JAWS and NVDA) are not able to read the new Form Description on request forms.	July 2021
Mobile devices	For mobile devices, the Maximum number of views exceeded message is not displayed properly on the Requests tab in My Library Card.	July 2021
Request forms	Inline styles (such as color) are not displaying in the new Form Description field on request forms.	July 2021
New Pagination	Shared session storage does not work as expected between new tabs.	June 2021
Accessibility	When using the keyboard to place focus on a drop-down list that does not have a default value (such as the Sort by option in My Library Card), the list will appear empty unless a value was selected previously.	November 2020
Accessibility	Users are unable to navigate the main menu using the tab key. Until an issue with AngularJS is resolved, users will need to use the arrow keys for this type of navigation.	November 2020