
Introduction to Esploro

Click to play

Duration	4 mins
Contents	Introduces Esploro, which is a research information management system. Research assets are defined as the information and files for all types of research outputs produced by your institution's researchers. The three interfaces are shown: the Research Information Hub, the Research Portal, and Researcher Profiles.
Target Audience	Repository managers
Prerequisites	None
Related Reading	Esploro Overview
Related Videos	Next: Terminology and Data Model
Transcript	Introduction transcript.docx